

I strongly oppose the the requirement that a broadcast flag in digital transmissions be honored by digital equipment. I believe that it curtails my right to properly use intellectual property products that I receive from their manufacturers. I believe that it fundamentally infringes on my intrinsic consumer rights.